

31 / OCT / 2020

5:00 pm – 7:00pm (Bangkok, Thailand)

Waa'Gey ~ Mysteries of the Wayfinding Voyagers

Panel Discussion after screening

Climate change is coming and the world needs to get ready, especially the indigenous cultures of the pacific islands. The panel will discuss how traditional knowledge is a key element in fortifying the climate resilience of island communities. And how its practical adaptation can empower the young, as well as literally save lives, physically and psychologically, and also help improve livelihoods.

Panelist*

Larry Raigetel
co-founder Waa'Gey

Sandra Iseke Okada
co-founder TASA

Douglas Varchol
Film Producer

Dr. Vitoon Viriyasakultorn (moderator)
Deputy / Program Director
The Rotary Peace Center at Chulalongkorn University

Spencer Leung (host)
Asia Coordinator
Rotary Peace Fellowship Alumni Association

* Click here for the summary of the panelists' bio