

Join Rotary Peace Fellows, Rotarians, and other leaders from around the world in Birmingham, Alabama USA, a city whose name is synonymous with the Civil Rights Movement, at the Rotary Peace Fellow Birmingham Symposium & International Peace Conference (IPC) on May 4-6, 2023. The IPC is hosted by Rotary International District 6860 in partnership with The Birmingham Civil Rights Institute, and the Institute for Human Rights at the University of Alabama Birmingham.

The Symposium will take place on May 4th with programming in the morning exclusively for Peace Fellows to reconnect, celebrate successes, and address challenges. In the afternoon, Rotarians and RPFs will meet to explore opportunities to work together on new or existing projects. The primary objective of the afternoon session is to build new relationships and engage in ongoing relationships among RPFs and Rotarians leading to mutual support and resources for their peacebuilding initiatives. The International Peace Conference will kick-off late that afternoon with a welcome reception and conclude on May 6th.

The Rotary Peace Fellow Symposium will bring together Peace Fellows and Rotarians to work on projects of mutual interest before, during, and after the symposium. To learn more, go to: RPF SYMPOSIUM | IPC \(peaceconference2023bham.com\)

Rotary Peace Fellows can apply at: Rotary Peace Fellow Symposium Application \(cognitoforms.com\). Full and partial scholarships are available! The deadline to apply has been extended to November 4th, and all applicants will be notified by November 30, 2022.

Rotarians can register at: Rotarian Peace Fellow Symposium Application \(cognitoforms.com\)